

Alliance to Mobilize Our Resistance (AMOR)
669 Elmwood Ave
Suite B13 Box B13
Providence, RI 02907

Monday, November 4, 2019

Aimee Partin
Director of Investor Relations, Invesco Ltd.
Two Peachtree Pointe
1555 Peachtree Street, N.E., Suite 1800
Atlanta, Georgia 30309 (USA)

Dear Ms. Partin,

AMOR is writing you in regards to Invesco Ltd.'s holdings in the Donald W. Wyatt Detention Facility in Central Falls, Rhode Island. The Wyatt Detention Facility imprisons detained immigrants, facilitates the separation of families, and encourages state violence on the US southern border. Financial support of this detention facility is a flagrant violation of Invesco's professed standards of integrity and accountability.

We demand that Invesco Ltd. take immediate action to fully divest all financial holdings from the Wyatt Detention Facility.

To absolve your firm's complicity in this situation and to achieve accountability and justice, we demand that Invesco Ltd. pay $1,780,830 to the Wyatt Bond Fund. This fund will be used to pay the bonds of people being detained ICE at the Wyatt, so that they can fight for asylum while free from prison.

The Wyatt Detention Facility is a quasi-public institution that contracts with the Department of Homeland Security to imprison immigrants detained by Immigration and Customs Enforcement. As reported by the New York Times, inmates have complained of hunger and inadequate medical treatment. Not only does the facility inhumanely house detained immigrants, but the existence of this contract supports the violence perpetrated by the government at the southern border and within communities of color across the country. An investment in the Wyatt Detention Facility is an investment in the separation of families.

In addition to the constant and daily violence perpetrated by the facility, Wyatt Correctional Officers attacked peaceful protesters in late August, driving a truck into seated protesters and using pepper-spray to disperse the crowd. Following this incident and its widespread national press coverage, Mayor of Providence Jorge Elorza declared that, "we cannot, in good conscience, approve of [the Wyatt's] continued operation."

The consequences of continued support of the Wyatt are not only moral ones. Investment in the Wyatt Detention Facility presents a significant and growing financial risk. As you know, the facility skipped a payment to its bondholders in January of this year. In the coming months, skipped payments to bondholders will only become more frequent.

In a letter to stakeholders, Marty L. Flanagan, President and CEO of Invesco Ltd., asserts the importance of social responsibility to the company's mission. According to Flanagan, "We encourage the companies we invest in to be good corporate citizens....We achieve this through active ownership and direct engagement with companies to promote responsible policies and practices." According to the 2018 Corporate Social Responsibility Report, "strong corporate social responsibility practices are part of [the] culture" of Invesco Ltd., which claims to "uphold responsible investment standards," and "give back to [its] communities."

According to Invesco Ltd.'s website, the Board of Directors "seeks to maintain the highest standards of integrity and accountability in the stewardship of the Company's affairs." Clearly, continued support of the Wyatt Detention Facility undermines this goal and flagrantly disregards the ethical standards that Invesco Ltd. claims to maintain. When contrasted with these statements on Corporate Social Responsibility, investment in the Wyatt Detention Facility becomes an example of blatant hypocrisy. Divest from the Wyatt Detention Facility before this moral contradiction harms your company's reputation.

Public opposition to the Wyatt Detention Facility is only growing. A diverse coalition of local and national activist groups has been staging consistent protests at the facility over the past six months, garnering widespread national news coverage. After AMOR's investigation of the financial support of UMB Bank, there has been intense pressure directed at Mariner Kemper, the bank's CEO, including national social media attention and protests outside the Kemper Museum in Kansas City, of which Kemper is a trustee. This pressure will not stop. As long as Invesco Ltd. continues to invest in the Wyatt Detention Facility, Invesco Ltd. is complicit in the human rights abuses occurring both within—and just outside—its walls.

Preserve your reputation, ensure your financial stability, and protect the communities harmed by ICE's violent policies. Divest from the Wyatt Detention Facility immediately.

We look forward to your response,

AMOR

Alliance to Mobilize Our Resistance (AMOR)
669 Elmwood Ave
Suite B13 Box B13
Providence, RI 02907

Monday, November 4, 2019

Maria Elena Drew
Director of Responsible Investing
T. Rowe Price Group Inc.
233 Park Avenue, South, 2nd Floor
New York, NY 10003

Dear Ms. Drew,

AMOR is writing you in regards to T. Rowe Price Group Inc.'s holdings in the Donald W. Wyatt Detention Facility in Central Falls, Rhode Island. The Wyatt Detention Facility imprisons detained immigrants, facilitates the separation of families, and encourages state violence on the US southern border. Financial support of this detention facility is a flagrant violation of T Rowe Price Group Inc.'s professed standards of integrity and accountability.

We demand that T. Rowe Price Group Inc. take immediate action to fully divest all financial holdings from the Wyatt Detention Facility.

To absolve your firm's complicity in this situation and to achieve accountability and justice, we demand that T. Rowe Price Group Inc. pay $623,220 to the Wyatt Bond Fund. This fund will be used to pay the bonds of people being detained ICE at the Wyatt, so that they can fight for asylum while free from prison.

The Wyatt Detention Facility is a quasi-public institution that contracts with the Department of Homeland Security to imprison immigrants detained by Immigration and Customs Enforcement. As reported by the New York Times, inmates have complained of hunger and inadequate medical treatment. Not only does the facility inhumanely house detained immigrants, but the existence of this contract supports the violence perpetrated by the government at the southern border and within communities of color around the country. An investment in the Wyatt Detention Facility is an investment in the separation of families.

In addition to the constant and daily violence perpetrated by the facility, Wyatt Correctional Officers attacked peaceful protesters in late August, driving a truck into seated protesters and using pepper-spray to disperse the crowd. Following this incident and its widespread national press coverage, Mayor of Providence Jorge Elorza declared that, "we cannot, in good conscience, approve of [the Wyatt's] continued operation."

The consequences of continued support of the Wyatt are not only moral ones. Investment in the Wyatt Detention Facility presents a significant and growing financial risk. As you know, the facility skipped a payment to its bondholders in January of this year. In the coming months, skipped payments to bondholders will only become more frequent.

According to the 2017 Corporate Social Responsibility Report, T. Rowe Price Group Inc. prioritizes “partnering with communities to understand their needs and make them stronger.” T. Rowe Price Group Inc. “serves as a trusted partner to our communities...working closely with nonprofit and community leaders, we seek to understand areas of greatest need and invest in innovative solutions that improve outcomes for youth, empower individuals, and enrich communities around the globe.”

The suffering that the Wyatt Detention Facility causes families in Central Falls and in communities of color across the country is antithetical to the ethical standards that T. Rowe Price Group Inc. claims to maintain. When contrasted with these statements on Corporate Social Responsibility, investment in the Wyatt Detention Facility becomes an example of blatant hypocrisy. Divest from the Wyatt Detention Facility before this moral contradiction harms your company’s reputation.

Public opposition to the Wyatt Detention Facility is only growing. A diverse coalition of local and national activist groups has been staging consistent protests at the facility over the past six months, garnering widespread national news coverage. After AMOR’s investigation of the financial support of UMB Bank, there has been intense pressure directed at Mariner Kemper, the bank’s CEO, including national social media attention and protests outside the Kemper Museum in Kansas City, of which Kemper is a trustee. This pressure will not stop. As long as T. Rowe Price Group Inc. continues to invest in the Wyatt Detention Facility, T Rowe Price Group Inc. is complicit in the human rights abuses occurring both within—and just outside—its walls.

Preserve your reputation, ensure your financial stability, and protect the communities harmed by ICE’s violent policies. Divest from the Wyatt Detention Facility immediately.

We look forward to your response,

AMOR

Alliance to Mobilize Our Resistance (AMOR)
669 Elmwood Ave
Suite B13 Box B13
Providence, RI 02907

Monday, November 4, 2019

Eric Senay
Director of Investor Relations
Eaton Vance Group
Two International Place,
Boston, MA, 02110

Dear Mr. Senay,

AMOR is writing you in regards to Eaton Vance Group's holdings in the Donald W. Wyatt Detention Facility in Central Falls, Rhode Island. The Wyatt Detention Facility imprisons detained immigrants, facilitates the separation of families, and encourages state violence on the US southern border. Financial support of this detention facility is a flagrant violation of Eaton Vance Group's professed standards of integrity and accountability.

We demand that Eaton Vance take immediate action to fully divest all financial holdings from the Wyatt Detention Facility.

To absolve your firm's complicity in this situation and to achieve accountability and justice, we demand that Eaton Vance pay $392,333 to the Wyatt Bond Fund. This fund will be used to pay the bonds of people being detained ICE at the Wyatt, so that they can fight for asylum while free from prison.

The Wyatt Detention Facility is a quasi-public institution that contracts with the Department of Homeland Security to imprison immigrants detained by Immigration and Customs Enforcement. As reported by the New York Times, inmates have complained of hunger and inadequate medical treatment. Not only does the facility inhumanely house detained immigrants, but the existence of this contract supports the violence perpetrated by the government at the southern border and within communities of color around the country. An investment in the Wyatt Detention Facility is an investment in the separation of families.

In addition to the constant and daily violence perpetrated by the facility, Wyatt Correctional Officers attacked peaceful protesters in late August, driving a truck into seated protesters and using pepper-spray to disperse the crowd. Following this incident and its widespread national press coverage, Mayor of Providence Jorge Elorza declared that, "we cannot, in good conscience, approve of [the Wyatt's] continued operation."

The consequences of continued support of the Wyatt are not only moral ones. Investment in the Wyatt Detention Facility presents a significant and growing financial risk. As you know, the facility skipped a payment to its bondholders in January of this year. In the coming months, skipped payments to bondholders will only become more frequent.

According to the 2018 Annual Report, Eaton Vance is “deeply committed to those who need a little extra support to rise above life’s challenges and thrive.” Eaton Vance claims to “understand that all of us benefit when we stand side by side with the community around us.” We demand that you stand side by side with the Central Falls community and with communities of color threatened by ICE violence across the country.

The suffering that the Wyatt Detention Facility causes families in Central Falls is antithetical to the ethical standards that Eaton Vance claims to maintain. When contrasted with these statements on Corporate Social Responsibility, investment in the Wyatt Detention Facility becomes an example of blatant hypocrisy. Divest from the Wyatt Detention Facility before this moral contradiction harms your company’s reputation.

Public opposition to the Wyatt Detention Facility is only growing. A diverse coalition of local and national activist groups has been staging consistent protests at the facility over the past six months, garnering widespread national news coverage. After AMOR’s investigation of the financial support of UMB Bank, there has been intense pressure directed at Mariner Kemper, the bank’s CEO, including national social media attention and protests outside the Kemper Museum in Kansas City, of which Kemper is a trustee. This pressure will not stop. As long as Eaton Vance continues to invest in the Wyatt Detention Facility, Eaton Vance is complicit in the human rights abuses occurring both within—and just outside—its walls.

Preserve your reputation, ensure your financial stability, and protect the communities harmed by ICE’s violent policies. Divest from the Wyatt Detention Facility immediately.

We look forward to your response,

AMOR

Alliance to Mobilize Our Resistance (AMOR)
669 Elmwood Ave
Suite B13 Box B13
Providence, RI 02907

Monday, November 4, 2019

Dominique Lefebvre
Chairman of the Strategy and Corporate Responsibility Committee
Credit Agricole Group
1301 Avenue of the Americas
New York, New York
10019

Dear Mr. Lefebvre,

AMOR is writing you in regards to Credit Agricole Group's holdings in the Donald W. Wyatt Detention Facility in Central Falls, Rhode Island. The Wyatt Detention Facility imprisons detained immigrants, facilitates the separation of families, and encourages state violence on the US southern border. Financial support of this detention facility is a flagrant violation of Credit Agricole Group's professed standards of integrity and accountability.

We demand that Credit Agricole Group take immediate action to fully divest all financial holdings from the Wyatt Detention Facility.

To absolve your firm's complicity in this situation and to achieve accountability and justice, we demand that Credit Agricole Group pay $337,695 to the Wyatt Bond Fund. This fund will be used to pay the bonds of people being detained ICE at the Wyatt, so that they can fight for asylum while free from prison.

The Wyatt Detention Facility is a quasi-public institution that contracts with the Department of Homeland Security to imprison immigrants detained by Immigration and Customs Enforcement. As reported by the New York Times, inmates have complained of hunger and inadequate medical treatment. Not only does the facility inhumanely house detained immigrants, but the existence of this contract supports the violence perpetrated by the government at the southern border and within communities of color around the country. An investment in the Wyatt Detention Facility is an investment in the separation of families.

In addition to the constant and daily violence perpetrated by the facility, Wyatt Correctional Officers attacked peaceful protesters in late August, driving a truck into seated protesters and using pepper-spray to disperse the crowd. Following this incident and its widespread national press coverage, Mayor of Providence Jorge Elorza declared that, "we cannot, in good conscience, approve of [the Wyatt's] continued operation."

The consequences of continued support of the Wyatt are not only moral ones. Investment in the Wyatt Detention Facility presents a significant and growing financial risk. As you know, the facility skipped a payment to its bondholders in January of this year. In the coming months, skipped payments to bondholders will only become more frequent.

According to Credit Agricole's Corporate Social Responsibility Strategy, the bank strives "to keep alive the spirit of an economy oriented towards the common good. The aim is to carry out [our] banking and insurance activities responsibly." Additionally, according to your Statement on Modern Slavery, "We do not tolerate any form of modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chain or in our business operations."

The suffering that the Wyatt Detention Facility causes families in Central Falls is antithetical to the ethical standards that Credit Agricole Group claims to maintain. When contrasted with these statements on Corporate Social Responsibility, investment in the Wyatt Detention Facility becomes an example of blatant hypocrisy. Divest from the Wyatt Detention Facility before this moral contradiction harms your company's reputation.

Public opposition to the Wyatt Detention Facility is only growing. A diverse coalition of local and national activist groups has been staging consistent protests at the facility over the past six months, garnering widespread national news coverage. After AMOR's investigation of the financial support of UMB Bank, there has been intense pressure directed at Mariner Kemper, the bank's CEO, including national social media attention and protests outside the Kemper Museum in Kansas City, of which Kemper is a trustee. This pressure will not stop. As long as Credit Agricole Group continues to invest in the Wyatt Detention Facility, Credit Agricole Group is complicit in the human rights abuses occurring both within—and just outside—its walls.

Preserve your reputation, ensure your financial stability, and protect the communities harmed by ICE's violent policies. Divest from the Wyatt Detention Facility immediately.

We look forward to your response,

AMOR

Alliance to Mobilize Our Resistance (AMOR)
669 Elmwood Ave
Suite B13 Box B13
Providence, RI 02907

Monday, November 4, 2019

Ben Golub
Chief Risk Officer
BlackRock Inc.
60 State Street,
Boston, MA
02109

Dear Mr. Golub,

AMOR is writing you in regards to BlackRock Inc.'s holdings in the Donald W. Wyatt Detention Facility in Central Falls, Rhode Island. The Wyatt Detention Facility imprisons detained immigrants, facilitates the separation of families, and encourages state violence on the US southern border. Financial support of this detention facility is a flagrant violation of BlackRock Inc.'s professed standards of integrity and accountability.

We demand that BlackRock take immediate action to fully divest all financial holdings from the Wyatt Detention Facility.

To absolve your firm's complicity in this situation and to achieve accountability and justice, we demand that BlackRock pay $302,445 to the Wyatt Bond Fund. This fund will be used to pay the bonds of people being detained ICE at the Wyatt, so that they can fight for asylum while free from prison.

The Wyatt Detention Facility is a quasi-public institution that contracts with the Department of Homeland Security to imprison immigrants detained by Immigration and Customs Enforcement. As reported by the New York Times, inmates have complained of hunger and inadequate medical treatment. Not only does the facility inhumanely house detained immigrants, but the existence of this contract supports the violence perpetrated by the government at the southern border and within communities of color around the country. An investment in the Wyatt Detention Facility is an investment in the separation of families.

In addition to the constant and daily violence perpetrated by the facility, Wyatt Correctional Officers attacked peaceful protesters in late August, driving a truck into seated protesters and using pepper-spray to disperse the crowd. Following this incident and its widespread national press coverage, Mayor of Providence Jorge Elorza declared that, "we cannot, in good conscience, approve of [the Wyatt's] continued operation."

The consequences of continued support of the Wyatt are not only moral ones. Investment in the Wyatt Detention Facility presents a significant and growing financial risk. As you know, the facility skipped a payment to its bondholders in January of this year. In the coming months, skipped payments to bondholders will only become more frequent.

According to your Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, “BlackRock’s reputation for integrity is one of its most important assets and is instrumental to its business success.” BlackRock claims to emphasize the community impacts of its investments: “We are also focused on the sustainability of BlackRock’s performance over the long-term. This requires taking into account environmental, social and governance issues that have real and quantifiable impacts.” According to Chairman and CEO Larry Fink, in his 2018 annual letter, “Society is demanding that companies, both public and private, serve a social purpose. To prosper over time, every company must not only deliver financial performance, but also show how it makes a positive contribution to society.”

The suffering that the Wyatt Detention Facility causes families in Central Falls is antithetical to the ethical standards that BlackRock Inc. claims to maintain. When contrasted with these statements on Corporate Social Responsibility and Mr. Fink’s professed goals, investment in the Wyatt Detention Facility becomes an example of blatant hypocrisy. Divest from the Wyatt Detention Facility before this moral contradiction harms your company’s reputation.

Public opposition to the Wyatt Detention Facility is only growing. A diverse coalition of local and national activist groups has been staging consistent protests at the facility over the past six months, garnering widespread national news coverage. After AMOR’s investigation of the financial support of UMB Bank, there has been intense pressure directed at Mariner Kemper, the bank’s CEO, including national social media attention and protests outside the Kemper Museum in Kansas City, of which Kemper is a trustee. This pressure will not stop. As long as BlackRock Inc. continues to invest in the Wyatt Detention Facility, BlackRock Inc. is complicit in the human rights abuses occurring both within—and just outside—its walls.

Preserve your reputation, ensure your financial stability, and protect the communities harmed by ICE’s violent policies. Divest from the Wyatt Detention Facility immediately.

We look forward to your response,

AMOR

Alliance to Mobilize Our Resistance (AMOR)
669 Elmwood Ave
Suite B13 Box B13
Providence, RI 02907

Monday, November 4, 2019

Kristen Kosmides
Corporate Social Responsibility
Legg Mason Inc.
100 International Drive
Baltimore, MD
21202

Dear Ms. Kosmides,

AMOR is writing you in regards to Legg Mason Inc.'s holdings in the Donald W. Wyatt Detention Facility in Central Falls, Rhode Island. The Wyatt Detention Facility imprisons detained immigrants, facilitates the separation of families, and encourages state violence on the US southern border. Financial support of this detention facility is a flagrant violation of Legg Mason Inc.'s professed standards of integrity and accountability.

We demand that Legg Mason take immediate action to fully divest all financial holdings from the Wyatt Detention Facility.

To absolve your firm's complicity in this situation and to achieve accountability and justice, we demand that Legg Mason pay $35,603 to the Wyatt Bond Fund. This fund will be used to pay the bonds of people being detained ICE at the Wyatt, so that they can fight for asylum while free from prison.

The Wyatt Detention Facility is a quasi-public institution that contracts with the Department of Homeland Security to imprison immigrants detained by Immigration and Customs Enforcement. As reported by the New York Times, inmates have complained of hunger and inadequate medical treatment. Not only does the facility inhumanely house detained immigrants, but the existence of this contract supports the violence perpetrated by the government at the southern border and within communities of color around the country. An investment in the Wyatt Detention Facility is an investment in the separation of families.

In addition to the constant and daily violence perpetrated by the facility, Wyatt Correctional Officers attacked peaceful protesters in late August, driving a truck into seated protesters and using pepper-spray to disperse the crowd. Following this incident and its widespread national press coverage, Mayor of Providence Jorge Elorza declared that, "we cannot, in good conscience, approve of [the Wyatt's] continued operation."

The consequences of continued support of the Wyatt are not only moral ones. Investment in the Wyatt Detention Facility presents a significant and growing financial risk. As you know, the facility skipped a payment to its bondholders in January of this year. In the coming months, skipped payments to bondholders will only become more frequent.

According to Chairman and CEO Joseph A. Sullivan, Legg Mason is committed to improving lives and investing in moral institutions. As Sullivan writes in a 2018 press release, “I’m proud of the work being done by my colleagues at Legg Mason and our investment affiliates worldwide. Together, we are dedicated to being that force for good that investors expect and to fulfilling our mission of investing to improve lives.” Investing to improve lives is, as Sullivan writes, Legg Mason’s “mission and guiding aspiration.”

The suffering that the Wyatt Detention Facility causes families in Central Falls is antithetical to the ethical commitments that Legg Mason claims to prioritize. When contrasted with the statements on Corporate Social Responsibility from Mr. Sullivan, investment in the Wyatt Detention Facility becomes an example of blatant hypocrisy. Divest from the Wyatt Detention Facility before this moral contradiction harms your company’s reputation.

Public opposition to the Wyatt Detention Facility is only growing. A diverse coalition of local and national activist groups has been staging consistent protests at the facility over the past six months, garnering widespread national news coverage. After AMOR’s investigation of the financial support of UMB Bank, there has been intense pressure directed at Mariner Kemper, the bank’s CEO, including national social media attention and protests outside the Kemper Museum in Kansas City, of which Kemper is a trustee. This pressure will not stop. As long as Legg Mason Inc. continues to invest in the Wyatt Detention Facility, Legg Mason Inc. is complicit in the human rights abuses occurring both within—and just outside—its walls.

Preserve your reputation, ensure your financial stability, and protect the communities harmed by ICE’s violent policies. Divest from the Wyatt Detention Facility immediately.

We look forward to your response,

AMOR